

DID YOU KNOW THAT ANIMAL ABUSE AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ARE INTERCONNECTED?

Signs of an Abusive Relationship

1 THREATEN

Has your partner threatened you, your pet, other animals or your child(ren)? Have they threatened to get rid of or hurt your pet to intimidate or scare you?

2 NEGLECT

Has your partner neglected your pet by refusing to feed or provide vet care for her or him?

3 HARM

Has your partner harmed, told others to harm or made you harm your pet by smacking, kicking, beating, torturing or killing him or her?

You are not alone. If you feel that you may be experiencing abuse or are afraid to leave an abusive situation, scan the QR code or call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1.800.799.7233. If you are unable to leave an abusive relationship because of concern for your pets, visit SafePlaceforPets.org for a list of domestic violence shelters with pet safekeeping programs.

SafePlaceforPets.org is supported in part by funding from the Canadian Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council.
