

As much as

$30,000+

REWARD

On Monday, January 7, at 10:30 p.m., someone tied a brindle pit bull to a chain link fence, poured a flammable liquid on him and set him on fire. The dog burned to death. The crime occurred in a common area near the 1600 block of W. 27th St. in Riviera Beach.

If you have information about this gruesome crime, please call Crime Stoppers at 1.800.458.TIPS (8477)

Callers may remain anonymous.

A cash reward – up to $30,000 – will be paid to anyone who provides tips to solve the crime.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

Reward made possible by the supporters of Justin Bartlett Animal Rescue, RedRover, IDA and HSUS
www.redrover.org | www.justinbartlettanimalrescue.org | www.idausa.org | www.humanesociety.org